About

Be a part of one of the highest ranked Criminal Justice and Criminology programs in the nation!

Our faculty, recently recognized as the most productive researchers in the country, provide foundational courses you need for careers in criminal justice, victim studies, and the many related fields. Students can focus on a career in law enforcement, corrections, or meeting the needs of crime victims at both the undergraduate and graduate levels of education. In 2015 and 2016, the U.S. News & World Report rated our on-line Master's degree programs #1 in the United States for Criminal Justice. Students can continue their education as a criminal justice researcher by exploring one of our Master's or Ph.D. programs. Sam Houston State University's Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology is one of the largest and most prestigious criminal justice programs in the nation.

You have a bright future at SHSU! The opportunities in our Department are endless, with flexible course offerings to fit your schedule:

- Recruiters from criminal justice agencies and organizations visit the center on a regular basis.
- Students receive real world experience by participating in agency tours, internships, and regional/national conferences.
- Courses are offered on-line, daytime, and in the evening.

Mission

The Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology is committed to conducting high quality research that will enhance the knowledge base among our student population, criminal justice agencies throughout the country and abroad, as well as the broader discipline. Student competencies are guided by an increased understanding of the role of criminal justice professionals, and research that underlies effective policy and practice. The Department is strongly committed to the provision of public service through applied research and related efforts with criminal justice agencies and community organizations.
