

DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE & MUSICAL THEATRE

Chair: Kristina S. Hanssen (drm_kxh@shsu.edu) (936) 294-1350

General Information

The Department of Theatre and Musical Theatre offers two degrees: a BFA in Theatre and a BFA in Musical Theatre.

Admission into the BFA in Theatre degree program is by audition only. Auditions for the specific emphasis in theatre: Acting/Directing, Design/Technology, Theatre with Teaching Certification, and Theatre Studies will take place at the end of a freshman's second semester or a transfer student's first semester. Students interested in pursuing a BFA in Theatre major take foundation courses in theatre during their first year at SHSU that help to prepare them for auditions into the various emphases.

Admission into the BFA in Musical Theatre degree program is also by audition only. Prospective musical theatre students should contact the department in the early fall for information concerning the audition schedule. If accepted into the program, the student will declare an emphasis in theatre, dance, or music. Students in the BFA in Musical Theatre degree program are required to provide a piano accompanist for their private voice lessons.

The department produces between eight and ten productions during the nine-month academic year and one to six productions over the summer. Students have the opportunity to put into practice what they are learning in the classroom in all areas that they study. Freshmen may be cast alongside upperclassmen. Advanced students in stage management, design, technology (costumes, lights, sets), directing, and house management may be chosen to fill the lead positions in their fields for any of the departmentally-produced shows.

Advanced students may take advantage of a number of internships with theatres in the Greater Houston area. The close proximity to the city also provides students with the opportunity to experience live professional theatre throughout their study. Workshops and discussions led by guest artists occur in the department each year.

Auditioning Policy

The department expects all incoming students to audition for all non-musicals. These auditions occur each semester during the days leading up to the first day of class and the first few days following. Returning theatre majors, with an acting/directing emphasis, are also expected to audition for all non-musicals each semester. All musical theatre majors are expected to audition for all shows each semester. Students schedule auditions through the Department of Theatre and Musical Theatre (<http://www.shsu.edu/academics/theatre>) website.

Academic Success

The department is committed to encouraging and promoting the academic success of its students. Students are expected to excel in their academic course work as well as in their production assignments throughout the year, and they are supported in this effort. Students must maintain a minimum GPA of 2.75 in their major area to be in good academic standing. Students falling below this target GPA will be placed on probation for a semester. Students placed on probation will be asked to meet regularly with their advisors in order to address academic issues and facilitate their success. Probation will be a factor taken into consideration as decisions are made regarding casting, design, stage management, and directing opportunities as well as determining eligibility for paid student assistantship positions in the department.

Writing Enhanced Courses

All undergraduate students are required to complete at least six hours of writing enhanced courses within the discipline, of which three hours must be advanced.

Academic Advisement

All students majoring or minoring in theatre should meet with an academic advisor in the Department of Theatre and Musical Theatre each semester. All tenure track faculty members in the department advise our majors and minors.
