

BACHELOR OF ARTS, MAJOR IN MASS COMMUNICATION: PUBLIC RELATIONS & ADVERTISING

Public Relations & Advertising

Today's marketplace increasingly requires communication practitioners to understand both traditional and new media and to be able to integrate communication tools across once-separate disciplines. Students who choose the Public Relations & Advertising Concentration will participate in a program that will provide a strong grounding in analytical and creative thought and comprehensive understanding of current industry changes. Students are required to complete the MCOM six-course core and then focus on a sequence of public relations and advertising courses that combines theoretical perspectives with hands-on experience. Students can also choose to enhance their portfolios and field experiences by taking elective courses such as the Professional Internship and Priority One, an on-campus agency.

Graduates of this concentration will have command of tools and techniques required for jobs in strategic communication in both corporate and non-profit environments. Additionally, graduates will have expertise in using those tools and techniques to think critically and creatively to solve communication problems in management-level positions.

Requirements

All students who choose to declare a major or minor in Mass Communication or Ag/Com will be required to pass the Pearson Grammar Competency Lab with a score of 80 percent or better before they will be allowed to register for 3000 or 4000-level courses in MCOM. The lab is offered free of charge. Please, visit Grammar Module (<http://www.shsu.edu/academics/mass-communication/grammar-module/grammar-module.html>) for additional information.

All students declaring a major or minor in Mass Communication or Ag/Com are required to receive a grade of C or better in all MCOM courses.

All undergraduate students are required to complete at least six hours of writing enhanced courses within the discipline, of which three hours must be advanced.

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB) marketable skills initiative is part of the state's 60x30TX plan and was designed to help students articulate their skills to employers. Marketable skills are those skills valued by employers and/or graduate programs that can be applied in a variety of work or education settings and may include interpersonal, cognitive, and applied skill areas.

The BA in Mass Communication: Public Relations & Advertising is designed to provide graduates with the following marketable skills:

- Demonstrate strong oral and written communication skills.
- Utilize leadership, critical thinking, and team-working skills.
- Conduct the collection, analysis, and management of digital data.
- Conceptualize and produce original and creative media.
- Produce media campaigns for social and digital platforms.
