

MINOR IN APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS

The Minor in Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) is designed to provide students with a general understanding of the scientific application of behavioral principles to socially significant behaviors. The minor requires 18 semester credit hours (six courses) in special education.

Code	Title	Hours
Minor in Applied Behavior Analysis
SPED 2301	Introduction to Exceptionality	3
SPED 3306	Behavioral Principles	3
SPED 3307	Behavrl Assmt,Intventn & Eval ¹	3
SPED 3308	Behvr Intrventn & Resrch Methd	3
SPED 3309	Ethics in Behavior Analysis ²	3
SPED 3310	Advanced Behavior Analysis ³	3
Total Hours		18

¹ SPED 3305 may be substituted for SPED 3307, but it does not meet the coursework requirements for eligibility to sit for the BCaBA exam.

² PHIL 2306 may be substituted for SPED 3309 but it does not meet the coursework requirements for eligibility to sit for the BCaBA exam.

³ SPED 3312 may be substituted for SPED 3310, but it does not meet the coursework requirements for eligibility to sit for the BCaBA exam.