

MINOR IN FILM STUDIES

The Minor in Film Studies enhances preparation for careers in arts, media, and education. Courses from various departments develop communication skills along with expert knowledge of film, television and their cultural contexts.

Code	Title	Hours
Minor in Film Studies
Required Courses
MCOM 2366	Film Appreciation <sup>1</sup>	3
Prescribed Electives
MCFL 3354	Film History I <sup>2</sup>	3
MCFL 3355	Film History II <sup>2</sup>	3
Choose three from the following:		9
ARTS 3382	The History Of Animation <sup>3</sup>
ENGL 3334	Literature and Film <sup>3</sup>
FREN 4370	Seminar in Selected Topics of Literacy, Language, and Civilization <sup>3</sup>
GERM 4370	Seminar in Sel German Topics <sup>3</sup>
HONR 3343	Film and Society <sup>3</sup>
MCFL 3356	Select Film Genre
MCFL 4350	Film Theory
MUSI 4375	Film Scoring <sup>3</sup>
PHIL 4373	Phil in Film & Literature <sup>3</sup>
POLS 4081	Problems in Political Science <sup>3</sup>
Total Hours		18

<sup>1</sup> MCOM 2366 satisfies the Core Curriculum requirement for Component Area V (Component Area Option).

<sup>2</sup> This course's prerequisite of MCOM 2366 is included in the Film Studies minor core curriculum.

<sup>3</sup> Course has prerequisite that may require additional semester credit hours or instructor approval.

Requirements

The minor program requires 18 semester credit hours.

All students declaring a major or minor in Mass Communication or Ag/Com are required to receive a grade of C or better in all MCOM, MCFL, MCJR, MCPA, or MCPD courses.

All students who choose to declare a major or minor in Mass Communication or Ag/Com will be required to pass the Pearson Grammar Competency Lab with a score of 80 percent or better before they will be allowed to register for 3000 or 4000-level courses in MCOM, MCFL, MCJR, MCPA, or MCPD. Please, visit the Grammar Module (<http://www.shsu.edu/academics/mass-communication/grammar-module/grammar-module.html>) for additional information.