Mission

The Department of History prepares students to learn about and analyze historical events; evaluate change over time; assess complex forces at work in the past; and learn how, in written and oral expression, to explain these various phenomena. In doing so, the department prepares students for any career requiring critical and analytical skills. The Department of History is a vehicle—through teaching, research and service—for exploring the past on its own terms and understanding the present.

Highlights

The Department offers a wide range of undergraduate courses in US, European, and World histories. Our diverse faculty demonstrates high standards of quality in both teaching and research. Four members have won SHSU’s Excellence in Teaching Award; two have won the Minnie Stevens Piper Award; another has won the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching Texas Professor of the Year Award; another has won the Ottis Lock Award for Educator of the Year from the East Texas Historical Association; and in 2016, one was a finalist for History’s highest honor, the Pulitzer Prize. Nine members have received more than $2.6 million in federal grants to train Texas high school teachers in Traditional American History. Faculty enjoy engaging in innovative historical research in Huntsville, in Texas broadly, across the United States, and around the world.
