

COMPOSITION (COMP)

COMP 1101. Applied Composition I. 1 Hour.

The course is designed primarily for the music major interested in developing their compositional skills. It presumes no former background in composition but requires good musical training. Credit 1

Prerequisite: Students must have instructor permission.

COMP 3301. Applied Composition II. 3 Hours.

The course is designed primarily for the music major interested in developing their compositional skills. The course presumes a previous exposure to composition and presents the necessary tools to expand and refine the student's skills. Credit 3.