

MASTER OF EDUCATION IN SCHOOL COUNSELING

Grow your career and help students as you expand your role with a Master of Education in School Counseling. The MEd in School Counseling at Sam Houston State University is a well-respected program in the field. It is nationally accredited through the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Education Programs (CACREP) and is designed specifically for students who want to work toward certification as a school counselor in Texas. It is a 60-hour program infused with a real-world, applicable curriculum designed to empower students to meet the demands of today's school counselor.

The MEd program is designed to comply with existing Texas Education Agency standards for professional school counseling certification. This program meets academic requirements for the Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) license in Texas. Additionally, students interested in play therapy can add on a Graduate Certificate in Play Therapy. All students must take the comprehensive examination prior to the final semester of Internship (COUN 6386). Students must be enrolled in the university when taking the comprehensive examination and when applying for graduation.
