The Department of Counselor Education currently offers an undergraduate minor in Human Services. The minor in Human Services is designed to develop skills necessary to work with people in a variety of professional and personal settings. This 18-hour minor includes knowledge and experiences for helping professions, service learning, career development, child-centered play, family relationships, communication and wellness counseling. Courses in Human Services will help students improve listening and relationship skills, develop insight for helping others, and improve self-awareness. The Human Services minor is great choice for those considering helping professions, including counseling.
