The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB) marketable skills initiative is part of the state's 60x30TX plan and was designed to help students articulate their skills to employers. Marketable skills are those skills valued by employers and/or graduate programs that can be applied in a variety of work or education settings and may include interpersonal, cognitive, and applied skill areas.

Students with a degree in Philosophy would graduate with the following skills,

- A well-developed capacity for synthesizing information.
- Strong critical thinking abilities.
- The ability to communicate ideas in a clear and coherent way, in both written and oral mediums.
- A well-developed capacity to understand diverse perspectives.
