

MINOR IN INVESTMENTS

The Minor in Investments equips students with practical knowledge of financial markets, securities valuation, portfolio management, derivatives, and financial technology. Emphasizing applied learning, the program leverages the College of Business Administration's new Smith-Hutson Financial Center, including its simulated trading floor and student-managed investment fund.

Code	Title	Hours
Minor in Investments
Required Courses
FINC 4345	Investments	3
FINC 4355	Securities Analysis and Portfolio Management	3
FINC 4365	Financial Derivatives	3
FINC 4375	Investment Technologies	3
Prescribed Electives
Select two courses from the following:		6
FINC 3330	Financial Spreadsheet Modeling
FINC 3340	Financial Analytics
FINC 3345	Financial Data Visualization
FINC 4335	Financial Statement and Credit Analysis
FINC 4340	International Finance
FINC 4389	Undergraduate Internship in Finance

Note: Non-COBA majors would need to complete additional prerequisite classes, including ACCT 2301, FINC 3320, and, when applicable, FINC 3330.