

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE, MAJOR IN INTEGRATED STUDIES: LAW, ETHICS, AND SOCIETY CONCENTRATION

The BS in Integrated Studies: Law, Ethics, and Society Concentration combines Criminal Justice, Philosophy, and Psychology minors to provide students with the ability to analyze complex legal and philosophical arguments and a strong foundation in ethical theories needed to understand the law and its application. Emphasis on research, writing, and interpersonal skills prepares graduates for law enforcement, victim advocacy, rehabilitation, and policy analysis careers. The program fosters a deep understanding of justice systems and human dynamics, enabling students to support diverse populations, assess offenders, and contribute to ethical practices and public safety. It also provides a strong foundation for graduate and professional studies.

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB) marketable skills initiative is part of the state's 60x30TX plan and was designed to help students articulate their skills to employers. Marketable skills are those skills valued by employers and/or graduate programs that can be applied in a variety of work or education settings and may include interpersonal, cognitive, and applied skill areas.

The BS in Integrated Studies: Law, Ethics, and Society Concentration is designed to provide graduates with the following marketable skills:

- Integration of diverse fields and perspectives.
- Innovative problem-solving abilities.
- Flexibility and adaptability.
- Ethical and analytical decision making.
- Behavioral insight and communication.
- Legal research and policy development.
